

I am very concerned that this issue is not adequately presented to the public for understanding and discussion. I believe that broadcast ownership should be limited and encouragement to locally produced programming should be made.

The airwaves are public domain and should be for the public benefit.